

LAURA NAPIER PO Box 811, Bronx, NY 10451 646.220.0716
laura_napier@hotmail.com / lauranapier.com

November 21, 2009

Dear Resident,

First, thank you for opening this letter! I'm a New York City based visual artist, and you can find out a little bit about me and my artwork at my website, www.lauranapier.com. I'm contacting you because I'm working on a new art project.

As an art project, I would like to visit all of the apartments I've ever lived at in NYC in the next few months, and it turns out that I actually used to live in your apartment sometime in the last 15 years. I'm curious about what these living spaces look like now, and would love to meet the people who live in the same places that I used to live in. Here is a description:

Where We Lived: A Tour

Sometimes I find myself standing outside old apartment buildings that I've lived in and wonder if I could pull keys from my pocket, enter the building, and step seamlessly back into the life that I lived there. Over the past 15 years, I've moved in New York City at least 12 times. Each move was a step forward, a rite of passage, choosing and leaving roommates and relationships, neighborhoods and boroughs, rising rents and different jobs. What does it feel like to return to a place that we lived?

I wonder if you would like to participate? The plan is to organize some of these visits between now and mid-January 2010. If you'd like to participate, fill out and return the enclosed note in the pre-addressed and stamped envelope, or if you'd prefer, you can reach me directly by phone at 646.220.0716 or laura\_napier@hotmail.com.

Hope to hear from you!

Laura Napier

ps - I graduated Cooper in '98, and this project is going to be shown in the new gallery in the new building in January 2010.
all best, L

LAURA NAPIER PO Box 811, Bronx, NY 10451 646.220.0716
laura_napier@hotmail.com / lauranapier.com

November 21, 2009

Dear Resident,

First, thank you for opening this letter! I'm a New York City based visual artist, and you can find out a little bit about me and my artwork at my website, www.lauranapier.com. I'm contacting you because I'm working on a new art project.

As an art project, I would like to visit all of the apartments I've ever lived at in NYC in the next few months, and it turns out that I actually used to live in your apartment sometime in the last 15 years. I'm curious about what these living spaces look like now, and would love to meet the people who live in the same places that I used to live in. Here is a description:

Where We Lived: A Tour

Sometimes I find myself standing outside old apartment buildings that I've lived in and wonder if I could pull keys from my pocket, enter the building, and step seamlessly back into the life that I lived there. Over the past 15 years, I've moved in New York City at least 12 times. Each move was a step forward, a rite of passage, choosing and leaving roommates and relationships, neighborhoods and boroughs, rising rents and different jobs. What does it feel like to return to a place that we lived?

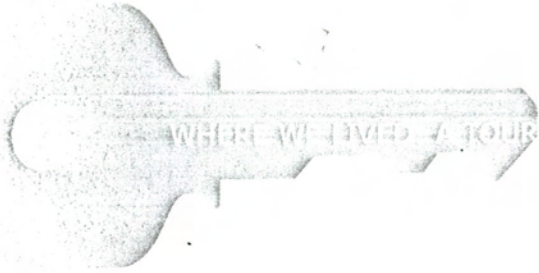

I wonder if you would like to participate? The plan is to organize some of these visits between now and mid-January 2010. If you'd like to participate, fill out and return the enclosed note in the pre-addressed and stamped envelope, or if you'd prefer, you can reach me directly by phone at 646.220.0716 or laura\_napier@hotmail.com.

Hope to hear from you!

Laura Napier

LAURA NAPIER PO Box 811, Bronx, NY 10451 646.220.0716
laura_napier@hotmail.com / lauranapier.com

November 21, 2009

Dear Resident,

First, thank you for opening this letter! I'm a New York City based visual artist, and you can find out a little bit about me and my artwork at my website, www.lauranapier.com. I'm contacting you because I'm working on a new art project.

As an art project, I would like to visit all of the apartments I've ever lived at in NYC in the next few months, and it turns out that I actually used to live in your apartment sometime in the last 15 years. I'm curious about what these living spaces look like now, and would love to meet the people who live in the same places that I used to live in. Here is a description:

Where We Lived: A Tour

Sometimes I find myself standing outside old apartment buildings that I've lived in and wonder if I could pull keys from my pocket, enter the building, and step seamlessly back into the life that I lived there. Over the past 15 years, I've moved in New York City at least 12 times. Each move was a step forward, a rite of passage, choosing and leaving roommates and relationships, neighborhoods and boroughs, rising rents and different jobs. What does it feel like to return to a place that we lived?

I wonder if you would like to participate? The plan is to organize some of these visits between now and mid-January 2010. If you'd like to participate, fill out and return the enclosed note in the pre-addressed and stamped envelope, or if you'd prefer, you can reach me directly by phone at 646.220.0716 or laura\_napier@hotmail.com.

Hope to hear from you!

Laura Napier

REALIZA TU SUEÑO THE DELAVEGA MUSEUM BECOME YOUR DREAM

Marra Polo Cafe

Edible Arran

102

NO STANDING 7:00-4:00 P

LAURA NAPIER PO Box 811, Bronx, NY 10451 646.220.0716
laura_napier@hotmail.com / lauranapier.com

November 21, 2009

Dear Resident,

First, thank you for opening this letter! I'm a New York City based visual artist, and you can find out a little bit about me and my artwork at my website, www.lauranapier.com. I'm contacting you because I'm working on a new art project.

As an art project, I would like to visit all of the apartments I've ever lived at in NYC in the next few months, and it turns out that I actually used to live in your apartment sometime in the last 15 years. I'm curious about what these living spaces look like now, and would love to meet the people who live in the same places that I used to live in. Here is a description:

Where We Lived: A Tour

Sometimes I find myself standing outside old apartment buildings that I've lived in and wonder if I could pull keys from my pocket, enter the building, and step seamlessly back into the life that I lived there. Over the past 15 years, I've moved in New York City at least 12 times. Each move was a step forward, a rite of passage, choosing and leaving roommates and relationships, neighborhoods and boroughs, rising rents and different jobs. What does it feel like to return to a place that we lived?

I wonder if you would like to participate? The plan is to organize some of these visits between now and mid-January 2010. If you'd like to participate, fill out and return the enclosed note in the pre-addressed and stamped envelope, or if you'd prefer, you can reach me directly by phone at 646.220.0716 or laura\_napier@hotmail.com.

Hope to hear from you!

Laura Napier

El Maguery y La Tuna

MEXICAN RESTAURANT

212-473-3744

323

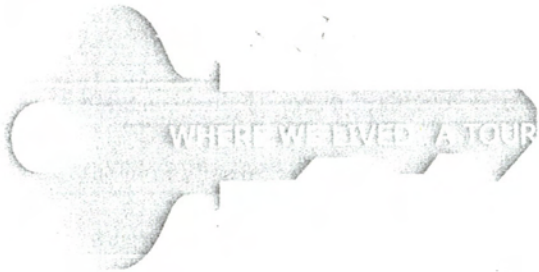

OPEN

OPEN

Modelo Especial

LAURA NAPIER PO Box 811, Bronx, NY 10451 646.220.0716
laura_napier@hotmail.com / lauranapier.com

November 21, 2009

Dear Resident,

First, thank you for opening this letter! I'm a New York City based visual artist, and you can find out a little bit about me and my artwork at my website, www.lauranapier.com. I'm contacting you because I'm working on a new art project.

As an art project, I would like to visit all of the apartments I've ever lived at in NYC in the next few months, and it turns out that I actually used to live in your apartment sometime in the last 15 years. I'm curious about what these living spaces look like now, and would love to meet the people who live in the same places that I used to live in. Here is a description:

Where We Lived: A Tour

Sometimes I find myself standing outside old apartment buildings that I've lived in and wonder if I could pull keys from my pocket, enter the building, and step seamlessly back into the life that I lived there. Over the past 15 years, I've moved in New York City at least 12 times. Each move was a step forward, a rite of passage, choosing and leaving roommates and relationships, neighborhoods and boroughs, rising rents and different jobs. What does it feel like to return to a place that we lived?

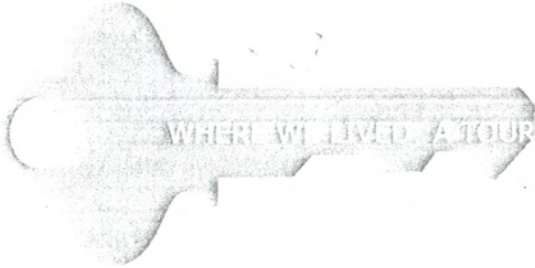

I wonder if you would like to participate? The plan is to organize some of these visits between now and mid-January 2010. If you'd like to participate, fill out and return the enclosed note in the pre-addressed and stamped envelope, or if you'd prefer, you can reach me directly by phone at 646.220.0716 or laura\_napier@hotmail.com.

Hope to hear from you!

Laura Napier

LAURA NAPIER PO Box 811, Bronx, NY 10451 646.220.0716
laura_napier@hotmail.com / lauranapier.com

November 21, 2009

Dear Resident,

First, thank you for opening this letter! I'm a New York City based visual artist, and you can find out a little bit about me and my artwork at my website, www.lauranapier.com. I'm contacting you because I'm working on a new art project.

As an art project, I would like to visit all of the apartments I've ever lived at in NYC in the next few months, and it turns out that I actually used to live in your apartment sometime in the last 15 years. I'm curious about what these living spaces look like now, and would love to meet the people who live in the same places that I used to live in. Here is a description:

Where We Lived: A Tour

Sometimes I find myself standing outside old apartment buildings that I've lived in and wonder if I could pull keys from my pocket, enter the building, and step seamlessly back into the life that I lived there. Over the past 15 years, I've moved in New York City at least 12 times. Each move was a step forward, a rite of passage, choosing and leaving roommates and relationships, neighborhoods and boroughs, rising rents and different jobs. What does it feel like to return to a place that we lived?

I wonder if you would like to participate? The plan is to organize some of these visits between now and mid-January 2010. If you'd like to participate, fill out and return the enclosed note in the pre-addressed and stamped envelope, or if you'd prefer, you can reach me directly by phone at 646.220.0716 or laura\_napier@hotmail.com.

Hope to hear from you!

Laura Napier

PARK SU.

167

PARK SU.

169

LAURA NAPIER PO Box 811, Bronx, NY 10451 646.220.0716
laura_napier@hotmail.com / lauranapier.com

November 21, 2009

Dear Resident,

First, thank you for opening this letter! I'm a New York City based visual artist, and you can find out a little bit about me and my artwork at my website, www.lauranapier.com. I'm contacting you because I'm working on a new art project.

As an art project, I would like to visit all of the apartments I've ever lived at in NYC in the next few months, and it turns out that I actually used to live in your apartment sometime in the last 15 years. I'm curious about what these living spaces look like now, and would love to meet the people who live in the same places that I used to live in. Here is a description:

Where We Lived: A Tour

Sometimes I find myself standing outside old apartment buildings that I've lived in and wonder if I could pull keys from my pocket, enter the building, and step seamlessly back into the life that I lived there. Over the past 15 years, I've moved in New York City at least 12 times. Each move was a step forward, a rite of passage, choosing and leaving roommates and relationships, neighborhoods and boroughs, rising rents and different jobs. What does it feel like to return to a place that we lived?

I wonder if you would like to participate? The plan is to organize some of these visits between now and mid-January 2010. If you'd like to participate, fill out and return the enclosed note in the pre-addressed and stamped envelope, or if you'd prefer, you can reach me directly by phone at 646.220.0716 or laura\_napier@hotmail.com.

Hope to hear from you!

Laura Napier

LAURA NAPIER PO Box 811, Bronx, NY 10451 646.220.0716
laura_napier@hotmail.com / lauranapier.com

Yes! I'd like to participate in the art project, Where We Lived: A Tour.

I am generally available (artist will use this info to help with planning):

evenings

what days? MTWThFSun

what times? All Night

weekdays

what days? MTWThF

what times? All day

weekends

what days? Sat Sun

what times?

Additional comments or notes, write in below:

No, I do not want to participate

Reason (optional), write in below:

Name: S. ... / Dead ...

Contact info: GRAND ST. Apt. BK, NY 11211

By signing and returning this form, I agree that this form may be used as part of and as part of the display of the project Where We Lived: A Tour. The artist will mask out my contact info before display to protect my privacy and keep my information confidential.

Signature: [Signature]
Date: 12/3/09

Where We Lived: A Tour

From: laura napier (laura_napier@hotmail.com)

Sent: Sat 12/12/09 2:59 PM

To: @gmail.com

---

Dear St and

Thanks so much for being into this idea! I got your letter - it made my day - and I'm waiting to see if I get any more this week before scheduling everything. Hope to talk soon.

all best,

Laura Napier
(646) 220 0716
lauranapier.com

---

Hotmail: Trusted email with powerful SPAM protection. Sign up now.

---

---

Dear [redacted] and [redacted]

It's looking like the holidays are fast approaching, and I realize that I should probably schedule my visit-as-art with you at 111 Grand sooner rather than later. We should probably also talk on the phone before the visit.

And,

I forgot to mention, too that the added bonus of participating in this project is free visit related artwork! Tuesday evenings may work best for me - do any of these dates work for you? Dec 22 or 29th, or Jan 5 or 12th?

best,

Laura Napier
(646) 220 0716
lauranapier.com

---

From: laura\_napier@hotmail.com
To: [redacted]@gmail.com
Subject: Where We Lived: A Tour
Date: Sat, 12 Dec 2009 14:59:25 -0500

Dear S' [redacted] and [redacted],

Thanks so much for being into this idea! I got your letter - it made my day - and I'm waiting to see if I get any more this week before scheduling everything. Hope to talk soon.

all best,

Laura Napier
(646) 220 0716
lauranapier.com

---

Hotmail: Trusted email with powerful SPAM protection. Sign up now.

---

Hotmail: Powerful Free email with security by Microsoft. Get it now.

---

FW: art project visit scheduling

From: laura napier (laura_napier@hotmail.com)

Sent: Tue 1/05/10 11:30 PM

To: [redacted]@gmail.com

---

Dear S[redacted] and B[redacted]

Hey, I've managed to schedule another apt tour (tentative) for next weekend (January 16), which I'm quite psyched about. Let me know if you are around Mondays Tuesdays still or at other times, I'd love to fit the visit in the next few weeks.

Laura Napier
(646) 220 0716
lauranapier.com

---

Hotmail: Trusted email with Microsoft's powerful SPAM protection. Sign up now.

---

LAURA NAPIER PO Box 811, Bronx, NY 10451 646.220.0716
laura_napier@hotmail.com / lauranapier.com

November 21, 2009

Dear Resident,

First, thank you for opening this letter! I'm a New York City based visual artist, and you can find out a little bit about me and my artwork at my website, www.lauranapier.com. I'm contacting you because I'm working on a new art project.

As an art project, I would like to visit all of the apartments I've ever lived at in NYC in the next few months, and it turns out that I actually used to live in your apartment sometime in the last 15 years. I'm curious about what these living spaces look like now, and would love to meet the people who live in the same places that I used to live in. Here is a description:

Where We Lived: A Tour

Sometimes I find myself standing outside old apartment buildings that I've lived in and wonder if I could pull keys from my pocket, enter the building, and step seamlessly back into the life that I lived there. Over the past 15 years, I've moved in New York City at least 12 times. Each move was a step forward, a rite of passage, choosing and leaving roommates and relationships, neighborhoods and boroughs, rising rents and different jobs. What does it feel like to return to a place that we lived?

I wonder if you would like to participate? The plan is to organize some of these visits between now and mid-January 2010. If you'd like to participate, fill out and return the enclosed note in the pre-addressed and stamped envelope, or if you'd prefer, you can reach me directly by phone at 646.220.0716 or laura\_napier@hotmail.com.

Hope to hear from you!

Laura Napier

Where you lived

From: Mina

Sent: Thu 12/24/09 11:42 AM

To: laura_napier@hotmail.com

---

Hello Laura,

I'm Mina, I currently live in 112 Lincoln Ave

we got your letter about the "Where we lived" project, sure we'd be cool with you coming over to visit.

My roommates Jonathan and Amber are out of town right now. I'm also going out of town, I'll be back Dec. 28.

I think Jonathan was your roommate a while back, right? He'd moved in winter 2005-06 I think, I moved in March 2007, Amber is a pretty new roommate, moved in this past September.

Let me know when you'd like to come over.

--Mina

---

Interior of 122 Lincoln Ave, circa 2005

megs subtitle
+1 dude

2004 - meg, helke, laura

2005 - haruko, biker dude, alcoholic, jonathan

2006 - Greta (Louisville), Margarita (Spain), Mina, 2007

~~Chris~~ Edward, Elsa, Christian
Jonathon Ghana and wife? name, Greta sister, Greta brother

2007 - Annie, Mina, Lauren, Jonathon
Anthony

2008 - Annie, Mina, Jonathon

2009 - ~~Amber~~ Amber, Mina, Jonathon cindy

~~different~~ 2000

← leg subtitle

Walnut Creek, CA 94595-2843

SAN DIEGO CA 920

21 DEC 09 PM 8 T

Miss Laura Napier

Lincoln Ave.

Apt ~~101~~

BRONX, NY 10454

10454+4466

LAURA NAPIER PO Box 811, Bronx, NY 10451 646.220.0716
laura_napier@hotmail.com / lauranapier.com

November 21, 2009

Dear Resident,

First, thank you for opening this letter! I'm a New York City based visual artist, and you can find out a little bit about me and my artwork at my website, www.lauranapier.com. I'm contacting you because I'm working on a new art project.

As an art project, I would like to visit all of the apartments I've ever lived at in NYC in the next few months, and it turns out that I actually used to live in your apartment sometime in the last 15 years. I'm curious about what these living spaces look like now, and would love to meet the people who live in the same places that I used to live in. Here is a description:

Where We Lived: A Tour

Sometimes I find myself standing outside old apartment buildings that I've lived in and wonder if I could pull keys from my pocket, enter the building, and step seamlessly back into the life that I lived there. Over the past 15 years, I've moved in New York City at least 12 times. Each move was a step forward, a rite of passage, choosing and leaving roommates and relationships, neighborhoods and boroughs, rising rents and different jobs. What does it feel like to return to a place that we lived?

I wonder if you would like to participate? The plan is to organize some of these visits between now and mid-January 2010. If you'd like to participate, fill out and return the enclosed note in the pre-addressed and stamped envelope, or if you'd prefer, you can reach me directly by phone at 646.220.0716 or laura\_napier@hotmail.com.

Hope to hear from you!

Laura Napier

LAURA NAPIER PO Box 811, Bronx, NY 10451 646.220.0716
laura_napier@hotmail.com / lauranapier.com

November 21, 2009

Dear Resident,

First, thank you for opening this letter! I'm a New York City based visual artist, and you can find out a little bit about me and my artwork at my website, www.lauranapier.com. I'm contacting you because I'm working on a new art project.

As an art project, I would like to visit all of the apartments I've ever lived at in NYC in the next few months, and it turns out that I actually used to live in your apartment sometime in the last 15 years. I'm curious about what these living spaces look like now, and would love to meet the people who live in the same places that I used to live in. Here is a description:

Where We Lived: A Tour

Sometimes I find myself standing outside old apartment buildings that I've lived in and wonder if I could pull keys from my pocket, enter the building, and step seamlessly back into the life that I lived there. Over the past 15 years, I've moved in New York City at least 12 times. Each move was a step forward, a rite of passage, choosing and leaving roommates and relationships, neighborhoods and boroughs, rising rents and different jobs. What does it feel like to return to a place that we lived?

I wonder if you would like to participate? The plan is to organize some of these visits between now and mid-January 2010. If you'd like to participate, fill out and return the enclosed note in the pre-addressed and stamped envelope, or if you'd prefer, you can reach me directly by phone at 646.220.0716 or laura\_napier@hotmail.com.

Hope to hear from you!

Laura Napier

